Members of the Day of the Girl Virtual Summit community are invited to host an online social screening of the film Shadya to commemorate the first-ever International Day of the Girl. The film screening is a fantastic way to explore the opportunities for girls' leadership, resistance and empowerment in their everyday lives.

An OVVE Social Screening

What's a Social Screening?

A social screening is a new way to watch and discuss film online. In celebration of the Day of the Girl, you can host your own social screening of the film Shadya and invite your friends to watch with you in a virtual screening room. You and your guests can live chat during the film to make comments, ask questions, and share your reactions. Join the webinar to learn how to set up your own social screening.

What You'll Need for the Webinar:

- 1) A computer with reliable Internet connection.
- 2) An updated web browser, such as Firefox or Chrome.
Test your computer to see if you need updates here: ovee.itvs.org/diagnostics.
- 3) A phone to listen in to the audio portion of the webinar.

SHADYA

Like many 17-year-old girls, Shadya Zoabi enjoys listening to music and hanging out with her friends. But unlike most other girls, Shadya is also a world champion in karate, a feminist in a male-dominated culture and a Muslim Arab living in Israel. Shadya tells her story over the course of two years, as she journeys from teenage girl to woman, from daughter to wife and from one family to another.

RUNTIME: 52 minutes

AVAILABLE TO SCREEN: Oct. 1–15, 2012
